

As a resident and a realtor in New Jersey, I feel it is important to protect the NJ Do Not Call Program. My family received 6-7 calls per night including Sundays, from groups selling everything, or wanting contributions. Now they have stopped and my families life is more enjoyable.